HENRY LINCOLN JOHNSON IS LAID TO REST AT D. C.

Deceased Had Brilliant Political Career. First Of His Race To Be Elected A National Committeeman

Funeral Services Simple, But Attended By Many Notable Personages. President Coolidge Sends Message To Widow

(Preston News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16—Henry Lincoln Johnson, for nearly a quarter of a century one of the outstanding race leaders, who once was recorder of deeds here and served as Republican national committeeman from Georgia, died at 12:30 o'clock Thursday morning at Freedmen's Hospital, where he was taken after a stroke of apoplexy suffered while at his home, 1461 S street, Sunday evening.

Mr. Johnson never regained consciousness following the stroke. His widow and two sons, Henry Lincoln Johnson and a friend of the family were with him at the time of his death.

Johnson rose from poverty and illiteracy of a slave home in Georgia, where he was born in reconstruction days, to a position of great influence. No man in recent years outranked him in political cunning and power. He held sway in Georgia when race leaders in other Southern States were eliminated from the councils of the Republican party and the political arena. All efforts to oust him as leader of the G. O. P. of Georgia failed.

Johnson was born at Augusta, July 27, 1874. As a boy he determined to obtain an education. He was a graduate with the degree of A. B. from the Atlanta University. He studied law at the University of Michigan and practiced in Jackson and Atlanta, Ga. President Taft appointed him Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, and he held that office from 1913 to 1916.

He was considered a capable official.

Johnson was a forceful orator. Having a vivid imagination, a keen sense of humor and a flow of language, he was a good, smart and humble debator. The Georgia whites would not have voted him into public office, but as a citizen and a lawyer, he was generally respected. At the time of his death Johnson was Republican National Committeeman and patronage dispenser for Georgia. He was a delegate-at-large to Republican Conventions from 1896 to 1924.

The first effort to put Johnson in public office failed because of opposition in the Senate. President Harding appointed him Recorded of Deeds but the Senate indicated its unwillingness to accept him, because some technical charges were brought to bar him.

Won Many Notable Fights

C. Bascom Slemp, Republican boss of Virginia for years and an authority of Southern politics undertook to organize the Lily Whites and minimize the Negro influence in the South, but was thwarted in Georgia by Johnson.

Soon after President Harding was elected Claregce B. Miller of Minnesota, then Secretary of Agriculture and National Committee, Joe Keeling, Republican Committeeman of Indiana, and other active G. O. P. chiefs took to the White House in his home State. They went to Atlanta and organized a white party with J. L. Phillips as patronage distributor. This effort met with disaster, and Johnson once more took the reins.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning at 11 o'clock from the Nineteenth Street Baptist church, Nineteenth and I streets.

Cabinet Members Present

Just as the center of the church sat Secretary of Labor, James J. Davis, accompanied by the colored Commissioner of Conciliation his staff, Karl F. Phillips; Postmaster General Harry S. New, Chairman M. Butler, of the Republican National Committee, and his assistant, James C. White, Assistant Post-masters, Gleason; Reager; and Mooney, and a number of other high administration officials and congressional members, who silently expressed their last tribute to the deceased.

Read President's Address

After prayer and remarks by Rev. Walter N. Brooks, Pastor of the church, Col. Roscoe Conklin Simmons, tearfully read the obituary of the deceased, which dealt with his early childhood.

Perry W. Howard read the President's letter of sympathy to the widow and stated, that the letters and telegrams of condolence were so numerous that time would not permit him to read them all.

The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. F. J. Bryant, pastor of Wheat St. Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga., where the deceased was a member, assisted by Rev. Walter H. Brooks, Rev. Oscar Scott, late Chaplain of the United States Army (Retired), Rev. W. W. Howard, Pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. and Rev. Avant, of North Carolina, Grand Chaplain, Independent Order of Elks.

Among the honorary pall-bearers and other notables present, were Hon. Wm. C. Mathews, Republican

COLORED WOMAN ON THE NATIONAL G.O.P. COMMITTEE

Mrs. Geo. S. Williams, Temporarily Succeeds The Late Henry Lincoln Johnson. To Hold Office Until State Convention Next April.

(Preston News Service)

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 16—For the first time in history of American politics a race woman has attained the distinction of membership on the Republican National Committee. The lady to be thus distinguished as the first race woman to hold this position is Mrs. Georgia A. Williams, of Savannah, Ga., who succeeds, temporarily to the seat made vacant by the death of Col. Henry Lincoln Johnson. Mrs. Williams will hold the post until the State Republican Executive Committee names Johnson's successor who will serve until the State Republican Convention next April.

It is said that Johnson's death has created a complicated situation in Republican affairs in Georgia. The party is said to be badly split into factions, whose alignments are constantly changing and a heated scramble is said to be in prospect for the seat made vacant by Johnson's death.

HUGHES HITS INTOLERANCE OF AGE IN U.S.

Declares Rights Of All Individuals, Opinions And Beliefs Must Be Respected To Have Justice

REFORM IS NEEDED

"Maintain Constitutional Guarantee Only So Long As Safeguard Civil And Religious Liberty."

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 16—A plea for the constitutional rights of individuals and a warning on the intolerant spirit of the age were features of an address by Charles E. Hughes, former governor of state, in opening the annual convention of the American bar association last week.

Must Be Reasoned Out

"The most ominous sign of our time, as it seems to me, is the indication of a growth of an intolerant spirit," said Mr. Hughes. 'It is more dangerous when armed, as it usually is, with sincere conviction. If it is a spirit whose wrath must be turned away by the soft answers of a sweet reasonableness. It can be exercised only by invoking the principles which watched over our infancy and has guided our development—a good genius, still potent let us believe—the American spirit of civil and religious liberty."

Liberty Thru Justice

Mr. Hughes said we should not put our trust in "papers or in legalism."

"We shall maintain our constitutional guarantees," he said, "only so long as they embody the American spirit. The fundamental need is not satisfied by the fundamental law, but only by a tenacious grasp of the fundamental principles which are back of that law—the principles of liberty to be respected, illustrated and applied by law."

In referring to the growth of the intolerant spirit, he said:

"Our institutions were not devised to bring about a uniformity of opinion. If they had been we might well abandon hope. It is important to remember, as has well been said, that the essential characteristic of liberty is that under its shelter many different types of life and character and opinion and belief can develop unmolested and unobstructed. Nowhere could this shelter be more necessary than in our own country with its different racial stocks, its many of faiths and the manifold interests and opinions which attest the vigor and zest of our intellectual life.

Protect Individual

"Let not the vital principle be obscured by mere discussions of constitutional power. We justly prize our safeguards against abuses, but they will not last long if intolerance gets under way."

Liberty, he said, is now in need of safeguards and protection against organized endeavors and against bureaucracy, so that "the citadels of individual liberty" may not be surrendered.

Moses had many difficulties to overcome for his people, but luckily he had no traffic problems to solve.

Ten Negroes Must Face Murder Trial For Shooting Whites In Fight To Protect Home

OUTCOME IS VITAL

N. A. A. C. P. To Decide Question Of Residential Segregation From National Scope. Hold Meet

DETROIT, Mich. Sept. 16—A bitter legal battle with far-reaching significance is about to be fought here, as a result of the fatal wounding of one white man and the killing of another in a segregation clash in this city on Wednesday night of last week, a thing that had long been celebrated the inevitable outcome of the wave of prejudice that has been sweeping the country due to the universal tendency that has arisen to hold the American Negro to seek for better homes and living conditions.

Forces Organize

At a gigantic mass meeting held Sunday at the Second Baptist church by the N. A. A. C. P. forces that will stand as champions of justice for the ten colored persons held for the shooting under forty murder and intent to kill warrants, organized. At the same time various white "protective associations" in the city were holding special meetings in preparation to defend the cause of residential segregation, and back Assistant Chief Prosecutor Lester S. Moll, who issued murder warrants against the colored citizens. Moll opposed the granting of bails even after countering writs of habeas corpus issued by Judge Arthur Webster, which would have released the prisoners.

Seeks Severe Penalty

The tenseness of the situation gave grave concern as it became known that officers will be under to invict the ten colored persons under warrants: Dr. Ossian H. Sweet, 30 years old; Dr. Otis Sweet, 26 years old; Henry Sweet, 24 years old; Gerhard Bernard C. Morse 42 years old. All the above persons live at 409 Contrell avenue south. The Sweets are brothers. John Latting, 23 years old, married avenue; William E. Davis, 31 years old, 2208 Brush street. Davis is a federal narcotic agent, was sent to Detroit from New York three months ago. Charles B. Washington, 34 years old, 552 Rowena street; Joseph Mack, 24 years old, 2305 Garfield avenue; Ronnie Steers 30 years old, 881 Bowen street; Mrs. Gladys Sweet wife of Dr. Ossian H. Sweet, are held on a charge of manslaughter in the first degree which carries a maximum penalty of life imprisonment or death. Moll said when he issued the murder warrants:

"Sentiment must play no part in the prosecution of this case. The evidence shows no act of violence or provocation on the part of the victims or any other persons, and the crime must be called premeditated murder. The prisoners were found in a room filled with deadly weapons. As we are unable to say who fired the fatal shots we must charge them all equally with the crime."

"While bail is discretionary in murder cases I do not think any judge will release these prisoners before trial; and this office opposes any such action."

N. A. A. C. P. Prepared

At the meeting held at Second Baptist church Sunday, July 12, Walter White, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, stated the problem under discussion was national in scope and affected every colored person in the United States.

"The national association stands behind us in this battle," he stated, "and will stand behind it to the last ditch."

Appointment of an inter-racial commission to work out a way of avoiding trouble between white and colored residents of Detroit, was recommended in a resolution passed.

The resolution was submitted by W. Hayes McKinney, national counsel of the association. It requested the colored representatives of the commission to be elected by the association.

"We welcome Mayor Smith's suggestion that such a commission be appointed," said Mr. McKinney. "We believe, however, that the colored representatives on it should be named by the national association of persons who understand the psychology of the Negro race."

Overflow Crowd Attends

The meeting was well attended, the crowd overflowing into the street, and a substantial sum of money was collected with which to carry out the defense of the ten Negroes.

In opening the meeting, McKinney said in part: "This is a time for sober thinking; a time for sober analysis of the situation confronting the colored people of Detroit; a time to use our best judgment.

"We have met for the purpose of defending and advancing our property rights. We do not want the minds of our people enflamed, but should look at the problem from the standpoint of Confucius who said: 'Let one live this life each day so that I can look back and say that I have harmed no one.'

DEAF-MUTE IS SLAIN BY TEX. OFFICER

Shoots Youth Suspected Of Larceny. Is Held On $500 Bail To Answer. A Charge Of Murder.

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 16—A defective youth, 21 years old, whose deformities made him a physical weakling, was shot to death by a white motorcycle policeman. The policeman, Landry Ferray, was placed under a $500 bond to answer a charge of murder.

The dead man's name was not learned until a man from Conroe, a small town near here visited the morgue and identified him as T. E. Host, a brother, who could neither hear nor talk.

Host was alleged to have been shot on Humble road about five miles from Houston, when he endeavored to flee from an officer on suspicion of being a colored youth said to have escaped Thursday morning after having been seen prowling around in the locker room of the International Great Northern freight house. Word was sent out to the police to watch for suspects. Ferray was one of those to receive notice, and when he ran upon Host on the Humble road he concluded he was the man sought.

When the youth acted queer and seemed to be getting away, Ferray sought to bring him under submission and shot him twice, both bullets striking him in the body, one breaking his left arm and one lodging in his abdomen.

Host was brought to Houston in a critical condition. Ferray was arrested on a charge of assault to murder. When the wounded man died the charge was changed to murder.

K. K. K. Letter Is Sent New York Letter Carrier

Samuel A. Browne Threatened After Refusal To Sell His Home

(Preston News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 16—Samuel A. Browne, a letter carrier, whose refusals to sell his home at 67 Waverley Avenue, Castleton Hill, S. I., a community of white persons, was followed recently by the indictment of Muse M. Roberson, a real estate dealer, for conspiracy, made it known Wednesday through the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People that he had received a threat signed by letter signed "K. K. K."

The letter told Browne "orders have been issued to our Staten Island members to act without delay." To this it notified him, was the time "to get out," adding that the "protection you will have now will prove a huge joke. If you wait until we act you will have nothing to sell."

District Attorney Fach and Police Captain Walter Rouse said they do believed that the letter was sent by the Ku Klux Klan and indicated they suspected some one in Browne's neighborhood had written it. A delegation of Negroes called upon Captain Rouse Thursday and asked for additional police duty for Browne's home, where one policeman has been stationed. Protection was promised if found necessary.

STARS-MONARCHS OPEN BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES HERE SATURDAY

St. Louis And Kansas City Ready For Grueling Contest To Decide Leadership In National League

PLAY THREE GAMES HERE

The St. Louis Stars and Kansas City Monarchs will start their series of three games this Saturday, at the Stars' Park, to decide the baseball championship of the Negro National League, and this city is beginning to experience the thrill of excitement that goes with the anticipation of being the home of a pennant winner....

Some forty years ago, the old St. Louis Browns won the championship three successive seasons, in the only National organization that existed. Since that time no club has been able to bring that honor to this city.

Stars Half Way

The Stars have already won a half pennant this year and the contest becoming Saturday are to decide which club is to be crowned with the coveted honor of being the possessors of the 1925 flag. This is the first time in the history of the colored league that a play-off series has been necessary. The club owners decided last winter to divide the series into two halves, and the clubs that won the first and second halves would play a series for the championship. The Monarchs won the first half with the Stars second, and the Stars won two verses in the second section.

Three Games here

The two clubs will play three games here at Stars' Park, Compton and Market; each contest starting at 2:30, on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The clubs will then move to Chicago, where games will be played on the next Saturday, Sunday and Monday, September 26, 27, 28. As the victor must win five out of nine games, it will no doubt take more than six, to decide the issue, so the place for the remaining games will be selected later. The Kansas City park will not be available until after the 28th.

PROTEST AGAINST UNJUST ARREST OF MANY NEGROES

Secretary National Office, N. A. A. C. P. Cites Injustice Done Colored Pepole By Unfavorable Newspaper Comment

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—Following a number of recent crimes in and near New York City, for which innocent Negroes were arrested, only to be discharged for lack of evidence, the New York World asked for and featured on September 8, a statement from Walter White, Assistant Secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., protesting against the injustice done to individual Negroes and to the entire race.

"The terrible murder of little Marybelle by the mental defective, Harpi son of New Jersey, said Mr. White, "brings to light a second case within recent months in the Metropolitan area in which Negroes have been made victims of mob hysteria.

"In the Daly murder the first reports told of the kidnapping by a Negro. Race prejudice flamed into existence and if Reginald Dieter, the Negro taxi driver, had not been killed some hours before by Noel, there is a possibility that he would have been killed by a mob.

"A short time ago the newspapers carried alarming headlines telling of the arrest of a number of Negroes charged with the murder of Florence Kane in Brooklyn. Investigation has resulted in the release of every one of the Negroes arrested and no longer is a Negro suspected of committing that fiendish murder.

"Negroes have been time and again victimized, and all Negroes have been made to suffer through the great eagerness on the part of public officials, often to cover up their own negligence or their lack of information, to accuse Negroes because it is popular thing to do.

Commenting upon this statement published in the N. Y. World and its effect upon public sentiment as evidenced by numerous telephone and other messages he had received, Mr. White said, it was an object lesson in the Negro's opportunity to influence the course of public dailies.

"If colored people will let white editors know of their displeasure when it is sought to fasten crime upon individual Negroes and on the race, if they will write letters to and call upon editors in person, they can not only change the attitude of white newspapers but profoundly affect through the mediums of such the sentiment of the entire community. Colored people should stop buying newspapers which continue to abuse them and they should let the editors know of it. Any newspaper wants to lose readers, colored or white. The results achieved will depend entirely on the energy of colored people in going after those results."

SHARE CROPPER ASSAULTED BY WHITE DRUNKS

Three Men Arrested Are Accused Of Brutal Attack Near Osceola, Ark. Victim May Die.

(Preston News Service)

ARKANSAS, Sept. 16—Cooper Denton, Will Slater and Al Smith, three white men were held under $1,000 bond each, charged with assault with intent to kill Lewis Ward, a Negro share cropper on the plantation of John White, north of Osceola.

The alleged assault occurred about Monday on the north and south highway near Holt, a small town 9 miles south of Osceola. Ward is said to have been taken by the three white men from the car in which he was riding with his wife and Mrs. Harry Gifford, a white woman of Osceola, who was taking the Wards to Bassett with her, in search of work.

Mrs. Gifford had stopped her car at a roadside filling station, according to her testimony, and Ward got out to speak to some white men. The three men, who are said to have been drinking drove up and ordered Ward to fill their radiator. After refusing to remove, Mrs. Gifford's engine already being started, Ward referred the men to other men standing nearby and drove off in the Gifford car.

Chase Man Across Field

The men pursued stopped the other car, and ordered Ward to get out. He ran across the fields with the men in pursuit and Mrs. Gifford believing he had escaped, drove back to town.

An hour later Ward was found by Deputy Sheriff Johnson, mangled and torn. Deputy Sheriff Johnson, after securing medical aid for Ward, had warrants sworn out for the arrest of the men, who succeeded in making bond here for their appearance for trial Wednesday, September 17.

Ward, who has not been able to speak a word since being brought here was taken to a Memphis hospital Wednesday morning still unconscious with little hope for his recovery held out by attending physicians. In the event of his death, the three will be arrested on the charge of murder.

Service For Students An Unique Occasion

One of the most note-worthy events of the year was the beautiful service held Sunday afternoon at All Saints, under the auspices of the Young People's Fellowship Club, as a compliment to the students who are leaving our city to resume their studies in the various colleges and universities.

The program, of course, was conceived, arranged and executed by the Rev. D. R. Clarke, whose reputation for good taste, high spiritual ideals and broad human sympathies are well-known and appreciated throughout the community. He was assisted by the Rev. Mr. Stanley of the Congregational Church and by the choir of All Saints Church. The sermon by Father Clarke on "The College and the Community" was a classic. The congregation consisting of the students and their friends was large and appreciative, and joined heartily in the responses and singing. The whole affair was an epoch in the history of the community, and it is earnestly hoped by all who were present that it may become a regular annual event—an institution.

MME. EASTMAN RETURNS

Mme. C. K. Eastman who was a delegate to the National Convention of Beauty Culturists, which met at Atlantic City, N. J., recently, has returned home very much refreshed after her trip. Her trip was extended by her vacation, the most of which was spent at Atlantic City, the ideal summer resort where many thousand people spend the summer. Her stay there, she reports, was quite enjoyable.

En route home, she stopped over at Philadelphia, the birth place city where she attended church services at "Mother Bethel," the oldest African Methodist Episcopal church, last Sunday night. She also visited Independence Hall and viewed the liberty bell in that historic city.

She is now back at her place of business, 1940 N. Leffingwell avenue, where she will be pleased to meet her customers and friends.

WOMAN BEQUEATHS ORPHANAGE $2,500

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 18.—Two thousand, five hundred dollars were bequeathed the Coleman Home, and orphanage for boys in this city, by the will of Mrs. Annie C. McMullen, a white woman who died here recently.

Mrs. McMullen is said to have learned of the home's struggle for existence through her housekeeper, Mrs. Mary B. Pressley. An appropriation of $3000 is given the institution by the state.

Kid Thomas and Company have a good combination of feature specialties at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The curtain raiser is a lively chorus of boys and girls singing "Carolina Mammy" medley.

Ransom and Ransom, a mixed team working under cork open with song and comedy conversation. The female member sings "When My Sugar Walks Down the Street," and the man has a hit in a new version of "Ain't It a Shame." After some more lines of talk they close with "What Makes You Do," etc.

James Calloway and the girls have a song and dance, "Low It Babe." Rastus Mathews does an eccentric limber leg dance. The girls have a Charleston round that goes over big. Ottis Mathews, as a comedienne and tumbler, is clever. A comedy, harmony quartette that has the punch consists of Kid Thomas, bass; Rastus Mathews, baritone; Henderson, first tenor, and Calloway, second tenor. A fast team buck by Calloway and Henderson scores a hit. James Edwards, impersonating a female doing the Salome dance, takes the audience by surprise. After a little comedy skit, the company closes with "Smile" and a spirited round of dancing.

VAUDEVILLE NEXT WEEK

A strong vaudeville bill at the Booker Washington Theatre next week, will have Edmonia Henderson, a popular blues singer; Madame Bruce and Herbert Skinner, a pair of classy singers; Grant and Wilson in a comedy skit, and Martin and Brannen will round out a good show.

Monday will be "Pay Day" when all who enter the theatre will be given an envelope containing a valuable coupon, cash or Eagle stamps.

The Charleston Contests

The "Charleston" dance contest started a couple of weeks ago, regaining in popularity at great speed. Tuesday nights are reserved for Juveniles and Friday nights for Adults. The whippers so far are: Juveniles—Rose Carr and Fred Brown. Adults—Win Kimbrough. These contests are held each Tuesday and Friday nights.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE STAR

A mystery picture that is off the beaten path and is yet as thrilling as any melodrama will be seen at The Star Theatre this Saturday and Sunday. It is a singular tale of the villainous careers of three unprincipled freaks thrown together in a dime museum. While the story is not sympathetic, the three of the crooks who are responsible for the crimes committed may be said to represent valor, mind and strength. With this combination the trio embarks on a career of crime that baffles police and leads into an avenue of adventure hitherto untouched by the screen. A cracking good cast appears in the film including Lon Chaney, Mae Busch, Matt Moore, Victor McLaglen and Mathew Betz.

"Private Affairs," based on a scandal in a small town will be shown on Monday. Hobart Bosworth in "The Man Alone," and Emory Johnson's big melodrama, Westbound Limited, featuring Ralph Lewis and Ella Hall will be Tuesday specials. Evelyn Brent will be seen in "Lady Robinhood" on Wednesday.

The attraction for Thursday and Friday will be Lillian and Dorothy Gish in "Romola." It is declared to be a masterpiece. It tells a strong story and has the necessary essentials—love interest, human interest, adventure, a story of the exciting life of the Florentines during the Italian renaissance, and as an adaptation of the novel by George Eliot. It is one of the outstanding pictures of the year.

THE JESTAMERE

Johnny Hines will be featured in "Speed Spook" at the Jestamere. The attraction is a comedy, is full of pep and is declared a scream.

The attraction for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will be "The Woman Hater," in which Helene Chadwick, Clive Brooks and Jean Harrow play the major roles. It deals with the tremendous drama of a beautiful Parisian actress who had turned Miles Faverman into a woman hater, who she jilted him. After settling Paris gaps with her beauty and talent, she returns to America, engaged to Miles friend, Philip Trantor, only to find that her first love was too big to forget. She tries to recapture her lost white sweetheart, but hate is too strong a dam to burst without an old emotional and dramatic struggle.

Eddie Polo in "The Dangerous Hour," a drama of love and laughter in the mining country, will be the Wednesday feature.

"The Age of Innocence," featuring Beverly Bayne, will be the attraction of Thursday and Friday. Its gripping theme is woven around the artificial freedom-loving Russian Countess, whose ideals and love light lead to live in convention-bound New York society. The story won the Pulitzer Prize in 1922.

THE OLYMPIA

Ralph Lewis, Dorothy Mackaill and Creighton Hale are the stars in "The Bridge of Sighs," at the Olympia Theatre this Saturday. "The Raid," a Western drama, will also be featured.

"The Light of Western Stars" will be shown on Sunday. The clash between desperate outlaws and the law abiding element in the vast cattle country of northern Arizona provides the parallel of destruction and progress in the building of the West, and is brought out in a colorful, romantic manner in this story by Zane Grey featuring Jack Holt, Noah Beery and Billie Dove.

Jack Pickford, Louise Dresser and Constance Bennett are starred in "The Goose Woman" on Monday. The story concerns the murder of a man and the false statement of a former opera singer who craves publicity. Her statement involves her son and he is freed only through her complete confession as to who she is and with the

A great pulsing drama of women and clothes—made by the man who gave you "Why Men Leave Home" and "Husbands and Lovers"—the story of some men who offer worldly goods and of other men who can offer only love. Clothes make the man, but can they soothe a woman's heart?

Clothes make the woman—every woman knows that—since the days of Eve, fine clothes have been the salvation or downfall of woman—and this great drama the dramatic revelation of modern women and their cravings for fineries—fineries that sometimes means struggle, trickery, sacrifice.

Too big for any words to describe—it's the story of women through all the ages.

"Gerald Cranston's Lady," on Tuesday; and "The White Monkey," on Wednesday are big features.

"The Fool" will be presented on Thursday and Friday. It tells of the adventures and romance of an idealistic young minister who believed that a man might live like Christ in the twentieth century, and how he tried it. The trials and tribulations, and the triumphs resulting from his interesting test of this theory make this picture an unusual and tensely dramatic play in every minute of it. Edmund Lowe is the star.

THE COMET

Milton Sills in "The Sea Hawk" will be the Comet Theatre special this Saturday. It is a tale of fierce Barbary pirates and Las a glowing romance. Three thousand players are in the cast. It has sea battles, commanding and hand to hand conflicts with other thrilling adventures.

Tom Mix with Tony, Billie Dove and Ann Pennington will be seen in "The Lucky Horseshoe," on Sunday. Mix rides through the scenes following the awarding of the beauty prize and performs dare-devil feats in the rescue of the girl that are sure to thrill every Mix fan in the audience. It is the story of a western ranch man who almost loses the girl he loves because he is too bashful to tell her his love, but before she leaves to go abroad. There are thrills galore interwined with real comedy.

Betty Compson in "Paths of Paradise," on Monday; Florence Vidor in "Marry Me," on Tuesday; and Anna Q. Nilsson in "One Way Street", on Wednesday, are big specials.

"Fine Clothes," will be the attraction on Thursday and Friday. The story is built around a London shopkeeper whose life ambition to get out of debt suddenly collapses on the eve of its achievement when his wife elopes with an absconding clerk, his best friend deserts him and a member of the English nobility seeks to complete his ruination by blighting a new love which dawns in his heart. Pecy Marmont, Alma Rubens and Lewis Stone are featured.

THE RETINA

The Retina Skydome will present Bob Wyatt's "Retina Girls" in an entirely new show this Saturday. Pop Hodge's "Jazz Babies" will be the attraction on Sunday. Both combinations are highly entertaining with songs, dances, comedy and peppy, gingerly girls.

Hoot Gibson will be presented in "Spook Ranch," at the theatre only, on Sunday. It is a western comedy drama in which Hoot plays the part of a rather thick-witted Texas cowboy who stumbles from thrill to thrill, always extricating himself just in the nick of time from almost certain annihilation.

"Gambling Wives," will be the attraction on Thursday. Marjorie Daw Ward Crane and Edward Earle are among the stars in this drama of wrecked homes through wayward women. It has mystery, suspense, romance, thrills and heart throbs.

Douglas Fairbanks will be seen in "Don Q. Son of Zorro," on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The story has to do with a young Spanish don who comes to Spain from California to complete his education. Circumstance makes him a national hero, then, perversely enough, circumstance brands him a murderer. To avoid conviction, the hero feigns suicide and becomes the dashing and mysterious Don Q. Hearing of his son's predicament, his father the famous Don Diego who won glory as Zorro in California, goes to Spain and together father and son win back the family honor at the point of the sword. In opinion of many, this is Douglas Fairbanks' finest contribution to the cinema.

Reginald Denny in "Oh Doctor" will be one of the features on Thursday and Friday. Denny has the part of the young man who feared death to such an extent that he spent all his time following a medicine and diet schedule until a beautiful nurse caused him to prove his courage. Mary Astor plays the nurse. The other features will be Herbert Rawlinson in "Dark Stairways," a sensational mystery drama with a romance.

It tells the story of a party of English scientists, newspaper men and a girl who ventures into the wilds of South America, and discover a lost section of the world, where life has remained unchanged in pristine wildness throughout 100,000 centuries. Finally capturing one of the monsters—a brontosaurus bigger than ten elephants—the party returns with it to London to prove their discovery. One of the most thrilling scenes ever filmed is that in which the monster escaping from its captors, charges thru the heart of the English metropolis, wrecking buildings and terrifying thousands of pedestrians.

She expressed herself as being anxious to take up her school work as president of the Parent-Teachers Association.  Arthur Jones, Jr., departed Sunday for Jefferson City where he will resume his studies at Lincoln University.  Mrs. Denver Powell has been very ill but has recovered.  I met Mrs. "Observation" and from good authority it has been found out that the parents of Kirkwood are sending their children to Meacham Park school. I would like to ask those individuals what their idea is for this action?. Why do you think we fought with brain and money to maintain our school in Kirkwood? Do you mean to cut your nose off to spite your face? The white man's plan in the beginning was to segregate you. To send your children to Meacham Park school is not in keeping with our teaching. We don't mean to say anything disgraceful about Meacham park at all. Our only object being to maintain the present school in Kirkwood on its old site where it has been for about fifty years. This is what we want nothing have more pupils in Kirkwood School than in Meacham Park. On a whole, one teacher has 68, while the other has 37, a total of 105 pupils. We must maintain that number at all cost. If you don't know what to do come out and express yourself. Come and let us reason together, if there is a misunderstanding among us. Come and let us iron out our differences.

Police Doings

A PLAN TO QUICKLY ASSEMBLE ENTIRE POLICE FORCE, IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY

A comprehensive plan for emergency mobilization of the entire Police Department within a few hours was laid before the captains of the various districts by Chief Clerk Wednesday in a meeting at Police Headquarters. Working on the theory that it should be possible to have every policeman, chauffeur and operator at his post within a few hours in an emergency such as a torrindo big conflagration or riot, Chief Clerk has laid out a plan which is entirely new as far as the local force is concerned.

Detail of the Plan

As outlined the plan directs each captain to prepare at once for his own use, a complete roster bearing the name, address and telephone number of every man and woman in his command. Each lieutenant is to have a similar list of the persons in his platoon and each sergeant a similar list of the men in his precinct force.

In addition each policeman is to have a list showing the name and address of every Police Department member on his beat, regardless of the districts to which they may be attached.

"Under this system we will be able to assemble the entire force on a moments notice," the Chief said. "It has never been possible to get it together within less than 16 hours. With our new plan, patrolmen off the beat can be here every man at his post in an hour and those who were missed by the patrolman could be assembled by telephone calls from the districts."

SEGREGATED SCHOOLS ARE SPREADING RAPIDLY

The introduction of segregated schools in Indianapolis, Ind., and Philadelphia, Pa., two cities that have heretofore had mixed schools, has caused quite a stir. Other cities are also faced by the problem.

In Indianapolis, the school board has issued a statement that it is the fixed policy to segregate school children in the public schools.

In Detroit efforts are also being were transferred from schools in their neighborhood to a school exclusively for colored at 19th and Wharton. The N. A. A. C. P., backed by the parents of the segregated children are launching a fight against the board's action.

In Detroit efforts re also being made to segregate school children. Following the recent residential segregation uprisings, an appeal was made to the school board by the Grand River Boulevard improvement Association for the segregation of Negro school children to prevent the entry of Negro families into white communities. In Michigan City separate schools have been introduced for the first time.

O' HAIL TO THE WORLD

The Aquarian Age: Is not only fully at hand, but passing as those preceding it (The Taurian and Piscean Ages) To its predestined Twenty One Hundred years (an age) course, toward delivering the reign of authority, over to its succeeding age.

DEMONIC SURGE AND SEIGING

The preceding part of this present Aquarian Age, so says the Holy Torch, the Holy Bible and the Holy Quran; Satan will be let loose on earth for a thousand years; during which time he shall marshal and direct his demons (fallen angels) against the powers of heaven and earth; in the midst of this Demonic Period, as they are roving and traversing the earth plane among living souls, to destroy their peace, joy, comfort, happiness, health and even life; in an effort of enlargening the Demonic Army of HELL.

DEMONIC INFECTIONS

Demonic Infections are nothing more or less than those diseases and afflictions of the human race, inflicted by Demons, through Demonic agencies (witchcrafters) Such Infections as these:

1. Flickering of the eyes; (Changing the focus of the sight, causing one to see strange objects.
2. Reversing of the drum of the ears; (Causing one to hear various sounds, voices and conversations, at times.)
3. Crawling of the hair one's head; (Causing a feeling as if the head were infected with a million of unknown creatures.)
4. Crawling of the skin on the face and neck; (Causing a feeling as if dozen spiders were knitting their webs over your face and neck.
5. Crawling of the skin of the feet, extending to the knees; (Causing a feeling as if they are infected with hundreds of lice and fleas.)
6. Crawling of the skin of the whole body (Causing a most miserable, feeling, preventing peace, rest or sleep night or day.)
7. Hot flashes of the face; (Causing a most grievous fainty feeling.)
8. Cold flashes of the face; (Causing a tremb ing and chilly feeling.)
9. Cold chilly sensations over the whole body; (Causing a most tormentive, nervous feeling; as if some calamity is near.)
10. Dreadful hot sweats of the whole body; (Preventing sleep, causing lost appetite and extreme weakness and nervousness.)
Spiritual Enhancement;
11. Spiritual Enhancement; (Causing one great aggravation, and appear as if they were losing their mind or becoming a grave state of dementation.)
12. Physical Depression; (Causing one to appear and feel as if a dear relative had just died and they undergoing a great surgiatical grief.)
13. Sour Engulfment; (Causing one to feel like seeking some secret place where they could scream to the top of their voice.)
14. Mental Capitula; (Causing one to feel as if all, of their brains are pressed by great artificial power into a small momentary space, bring about dizzy spells and noticeable state of blank-mindedness.

DETROIT AND CHICAGO TO BATTLE FOR THIRD PLACE

The Detroit Stars and the American Giants will battle for third place honors in the National league starting in Chicago on Sept. 19, playing three games, and on Sept. 26, the series moves over to Detroit where it continues. The series is for the best five out of nine games. If the series is not decided at the end of the play in Detroit on Sept. 28, a game will be tossed to decide where the balance of the games will be played.

Detroit finished third in the league race in the first half with the American Giants fourth. The Giants finished just the reverse in the second half.

THE SERIES AS SEEN THROUGH K. CITY EYES

Special to The Argus

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 15.—The Kansas City Monarchs sharpened their batting and fielding eyes this week by taking five straight games from the Birmingham Black Barons. With the exception of the last game, all of the games were hard, fought, and the champs looked over some great pitching. The team will leave Kansas City for St. Louis Thursday and will work out either Friday morning or afternoon on the Stars grounds. The team feels full of confidence and are looking forward to the big series with Hilldale. The boys have hooked up with the Stars in 13 games this season winning 12, and losing 0, and tying one; and, from past performances the Monarchs expect to be a 2 to 1 favorite at the start of the series. Saturday with the Stars. On paper the Monarchs are the best team, they will outhit the Stars they will have better pitching and will out smart and outfield the Stars, which means that there is little comparison. The recent series with the Stars caused the Champs very little worry, and they are going to St. Louis to win.

Dumean and Foreman are better catchers than Murray and Barnes. Hawkins is a smarter first sacker than Bobo, and in the recent series he outplayed Bobo, two to one. Allen at second is the class of the league Moore has no equal in Negro baseball. Joseph is the best third baseman in the league. McNair, Mothel, Johnston and Sweatt in the outfield rank far over the Stars outfield. The pitching staff with Rogan, Dean, C. Bell, W. Bell, Drake, Brewer and Mendez is far superior to Ross, Davis, Branahan, Hensley and Miller. The Monarchs are a great series team and their playing in the big series last season will be a great help to them in the series with the Stars.

For the Stars, they can hit, so can the Monarchs. The same old car barn has been located in the same place for the past two years and the Monarchs have no fear of the same. It was there this spring.

McNair, crack fielder of the Monarchs, has been out of the game for several days resting up a sprained tendon, but will be ready to take his place in the regular lineup at St. Louis.

year and in the second half, the Stars were required to play ten games in Kansas City and the Monarchs were required to play seven games in St. Louis. Joe Mendez, the Cuban manager of the Monarchs would only say, "We always play to win." Receipts breaking records are expected at the three games here. The management has arranged to comfortably take care of the extra thousands. Although the games are scheduled to start at 2:30; the gates will be opened at 11 o'clock on Sunday, and at noon on Saturday and Monday. The general admission will be $1.00 and box seats 50c extra.

The hotels announce that they are already nearly filled with reservations. Fans are expected to pour in from the the surrounding territory and many will come from long distances to watch the outcome of the unique contest.

Manager Taylor Confident

Manager James Taylor, of the Stars, when asked for his opinion this week, stated "In the series with the Monarchs the Stars should win. My club is not a great club when you compare the players man for man, but the fighting spirit of the club and the team play should win for them. The boys are going into this series to win and will make it hard for Mendez and Co. Don't be surprised if the Stars play in the World's Series."

Joe Mendez, the Cuban manager of the Monarchs would only say, "We always play to win."

KANSAS CITY WINS FIVE FROM BIRMINGHAM

KANSAS CITY, Sept., 2.—The Kansas City Monarchs made it five straight over Birmingham by winning a double-header on Sunday, a single game on Monday and another double session on Tuesday. Rain prevented the opening game on Saturday.

Sunday, Sept. 13

The Monarchs shut out the Black Barons in both games. On a damp and soggy field and with heavy laden skies hanging overhead the local fans who braved the dark and dismal day were rewarded by seeing two of the best played games of the season here today, when the Monarchs defeated the Black Barons in both ends of the day's doubleheader by the scores of 1 to 0 and 3 to 0. The first game was the fastest game ever played on the local diamond, the exact time being one hour and five minutes. Big Frank Drake was on the mound for the locals and pitched one of the best games of his career, holding the visitors to five scattered hits. Squire Moore started for the Barons and was jerked out in the first inning after the locals scored their first and only run being replaced by Williams, who held the Champs scoreless for the balance of the game. Another feature of the game happened in the third inning, when the Barons were retired on three pitched balls by Drake.

The second game was a pitchers' battle between Rogan and Squire Moore. Moore pitched a brilliant game, holding the locals to four hits, while Rogan was touched up for 6 hits. Brilliant fielding and great throws from the outfield by both teams cut down runs at the plate.

First Game

Birmingham	000 000 000	0	5	1
Monarchs	100 000 00x	1	8	3

Batteries—Moore, Williams and Poindexter; Drake and Duncan

Second Game

Birmingham	000 000 000	0	6	1
Monarchs	000 021 x	3	4	1

(Seven innings only by agreement.)

Batteries—Moore and Poindexter; Rogan and Foreman.

Monday, Sept. 14

The Monarchs and Black Barons staged a 13 inning contest on Monday. A Texas league single by Hawk Hawkins with one out scored the game and the Monarchs a 2 to 1 victory.

Both teams scored in the fourth inning and from then on neither team was able to get across a runner. Both pitchers were in great form, the locals getting 5 hits off of Moore, while the visitors got six off of Dean. Moore struck out seven men and Dean 5. The one run made by the visitors today was their first run in three games.

Dean- Duncan and Foreman.

Tuesday, Sept. 15

The Monarchs had to play ten innings to win the first game from the Black Barons on Tuesday, 2 to 1. The second contest was easier, the champions going over 10 to 3 in the seven inning.

First Game

Monarchs	000 100 000	1—2	9	1

Batteries—Poindexter and Russ; C. Bell and Duncan.

Second Game

Birmingham	101 000 1	—3
Monarchs	042 202 x	—10

Batteries—Moore and Williams; Brewer and Foreman.

St. Louis Stars Win From East St. Louis Giants

The St. Louis Stars won an exhibition game from the East St. Louis Giants last Sunday 4 to 3. Harrison pitched a good game against the League club although twelve hits were gathered off his delivery. The Stars played carefully to avoid any mishap that might weaken them for the coming championship games. The score:

Giants	200 000 100	—3	6	2
Stars	000 010 02x	—4	12	1

Chicago Wins Two From The Cuban Stars

CHICAGO Sept. 16.—The Chicago American Giants won a double header from the Cuban Stars Sunday, 4 to 0 and 3 to 1. The second game went only five innings. Foster and Alexander were on the mound in the first, and Powell was opposed by Montelvo in the second contest.

A. B. C.'s Lose To Detroit

DETROIT Sept. 14.—The Detroit Stars won both ends of a doubleheader from the Indianapolis A. B. C.'s on Sunday. Mitchell pitched a good game for the A's in the first game, but was beaten 5 to 2. Cooper held the visitors safe.

In the second game Morris pitched a splendid game, holding the Indiana boys to five hits and allowing but one scratch run. Madison pitching for the Hoosiers twirled a creditable game and only seven hits were gathered off his delivery. Errors were responsible for most of the Stars' scores. Stearnes hit two home runs, two men being on the bases each time. The score was 7 to 2.

All-Star Nine May Meet The New York Yankees

NEW YORK, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Negotiations are under way for a post league series between an all-star colored team and one of the big league teams, probably the New York Yankees. If present plans work out this series will be played at the Yankee Stadium which has a seating capacity of 75,000.

The colored team is being gotten together by James J. Keenan, owner of the Lincoln Giants. About half of the team will probably be Lincoln Giant players, but they will be augmented by such stars as John Henry Lloyd, Oscar Charleston, Wagner and Stephenson of the Royal Giants and several other well known players.

For the past five years New York has been presented in the World's series and New York baseball fans have been kept interested in big league games until the middle of October. This season it's different and the curtain will be rung down the end of September. It is believed that a white and colored series will attract much attention the first week in October, especially against the big league players.

Details of the proposed series will be announced within the next week or ten days.

Howard Football Call

The Associated Negro Press

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16—Coach Watson issued a call for Howard University football candidates to report on the University Campus beginning last Monday. Seventy letters were sent out inviting all of last year's squad and a large number of new men to report. Coaches Jackson Watson and Charles West have had frequent conferences with Captain Long concerning plans for the coming season. All phases of the season's campaign have been worked out in detail and candidates for the team have been impressed with the importance of pre-season training with the result that letters from men all over the country are pouring into the Coach's office reassuring him of hearty cooperation.

Followers of the team will be interested to know that the following "vets" among others have indicated that they will be on hand—Captain Long, Campbell, Ballo, Former Captain Dokes, Smith, Dan Miller, George Miller, Martin, Kelley, Payne, "Dick" McClain, Braden, and Joe Dokes. Coach Watson expects to furnish plenty of competition for the new boys. There will be hot times on the Old Campus from Monday, September 14th until the Bisons have crushed the savage Lincoln Lions on Thanksgiving Day next in Philadelphia.

HUBBARD "JUST WON'T QUIT," SO SAY WHITE SPRINTERS OF EAST

Equals World Record In 125 Yard Dash

Wills Signed to Meet Australian Heavyweight, Sept. 29

Pacific Coast to Hold First Speedway Races, Oct. 4

National Tennis Association Coming to St. Louis Expecting Much, Says Brown

Three times on last Monday night the great Michigan U. athlete, De Hart Hubbard, toed the mark in competition with three of the greatest sprinters in the east, three times did he get away ahead of his opponents at the crack of the starter's pistol with that unrivaled flash of speed that has won him the name of being the speediest "take off" man in the world, and three times did the steel brawn chest of the dusky athlete break the tape at the finish to capture men who have toppled records in sprint events. Thus Hubbard entered the world of Amateur Athletes Monday night in the outdoor athletic games of the New York Order of the Knights of Columbus held in the New York American League baseball park.

Jackson V. Scholz, New York Athletic Club; Alfred Leconey, Meadowbrook, and Chet Bowman, Newark Athletic Club Hubbard's victims in 50, 75 and 100 yard special races were quite "taken away" by Coach Steve Farrell's product. They wondered at their own incompetence But Hubbard just reckoned that some body had been feeling fine.

Hubbard's time in the 50 yard dash was 5 3-5, just a few seconds slower than his world record; in the 75 yard dash, 7 4-5 also somewhat slower than his world record, and in the 100 yard dash, 10 1-5 likewise slower than his world record.

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 11.—De Hart Hubbard, of Cincinnati, O., former University of Michigan athlete, holder of the world's record of 25 feet 10 inches in the broad jump and winner of that event in the Olympic games, was the feature performer at a track and field meet here today in which colored athletes from seven or eight cities took part. In an exhibition 127 yard dash, Hubbard tied the world's record of 12½ seconds on the local track. He also gave an exhibition in the broad jump. Cincinnati athletes annexed the meet.

New York, Sept. 14—George Cook, Australian heavyweight, signed articles today to meet Harry Wills, Negro fighter, for the heavyweight title, in Newark, on September 29. It was announced today by Walk Miller, his manager.

The fight will be staged by the National Sportsman's club which already has Wills under contract to meet an opponent to be selected by the club.

For the first time in automobile history on the Pacific Coast, the finest types of racing cars will be piloted by colored speed demons when the Western Auto Association holds its first big event, on the popular Ascot speedway, at Los Angeles, Calif., Sunday, Oct. 4. Jimmy Jones will be four thrilling automobile races and also motorcycle races. "Ace" Foreman, colored aviator, will give a flying exhibition.

The entries include: automobile: Robert Simpkins, Oscar Young, B. Bartlett, Williams Hays, Henry Lewis and Lincoln Bailey; motorcycle: Robert Dennis, Clyde Green and Lincoln Bailey.

Word comes from Edgar Brown of New York, that the National Tennis Association is expecting great things out of its acceptance of Richard Hudlin's invitation to hold it national meet in St. Louis next August. A group of enthusiasts in St. Louis have anticipated such expectations and have already begun to shape plans for the association to fully live up to call St. Louis the "City of Hospitality"

Wilberforce University Begins Football Practice

(Preston News Service)

WILBERFORCE, O., Sept. 16—With the first football game to be played October 3, football practice was begun Septembes 7 with Coach Harry C. Graves at the helm. In August, Coach Graves issued a call for 44 men to begin practice September 7 and all but a few have responded to the call. It is expected that the remaining quota will be on hand registration day, together with a number of new players.

This is the second year for Coach Graves as the Bulldog mentor and he will have with him the same men as last year. With a better understanding of the Michigan system a greater year of football for Wilberforce is in the dawning. Coach Graves has something up his sleeve this year to give the football public and also to all opponents for he took a Summer course in theory and practice of football at Ohio State University under the famous football mentor, Dr. Wilce. Wilberforce football fans are boasting this season that if it is beaten by any other team that team will know it was a game, and the Wilberforce slogan is "Best Howard, Lincoln and West Virginia," with the boys carrying out the command of Coach Graves—"Fight hard and play fair," it is felt the slogan will be reality.

By the way applications have flooded the registrar's office, it looks as if Wilberforce will have an increase in enrollment of some five or six hundred students, among whom are a number of athletes from various white high schools of football repute—in addition to transfer students of other Negro colleges and universities, according to announcement from the registar's office.

With the schedule Wilberforce is to undergo this year, facts will tell where she stands in the football world as South, East and West. Atlanta University will play Howard this year, Tuskegee will play Atlanta, Morris Brown will play Morehouse, Talladega and Atlanta. West Virginia will play Howard and Lincoln, etc. Wilberforce plays Morris Brown, Howard, Lincoln and West Virginia. Should Wilberforce beat Morris Brown and whether or not Morris Brown beats Atlanta, but should Howard beat Atlanta and Atlanta beats Tuskegee—or if West Virginia beats Howard and Lincoln and Wilberforce beats Howard, Lincoln and West Virginia, as is its slogan, naturally Wilberforce will stand out as National Negro Collegiate Champions and will take its place in the Negro football world this year as Notre Dame did last year among white schools. Coach Graves with his assistants are centering all efforts to leave no stone unturned to make these "ifs" and "Ands" a reality.

GRANTLAND RICE SAYS

"While Harry Wills is complaining bitterly of Jack Dempsey's tactics in the Rum-and-Reno game, Wills in turn cannot hear the equally bitter complaints of George Godfrey, the big Negro fighter, who has been on the shelf for almost a year. Godfrey would be no part of a set-up if this match was ever made. He is bigger than Wills, younger than Wills, faster than Wills and a better boxer than Wills.

"These are assets not to be over-looked. Godfrey knocked out Tate after Tate had held Wills about even in two ten-round affairs. A Wills-Godfrey contest would draw its share of gold bullion for a cold winter just ahead, but Wills, in the meanwhile, is slipping Godfrey the same type of dead-eye which Dempsey is handing him."

ROBESON SCORES IN LONDON PRESENTATION

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The London Times, Manchester Guardian and other famous English papers were loud in their praise of the acting of Paul Robeson who appeared here last week in Eugene O'Neill's "Emperor Jones". The play was pronounced an eminent success, chiefly because of the superb acting of Robeson in the role of Emperor Jones.

CUTS DETECTIVE'S FINGER

Associated Negro Press

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16.—Cornered by Detective Howard E. Ogle, after an exciting automobile chase, Samuel Henson drew a knife and made a lunge for the officer. The latter threw up his right hand and caught a blow from the weapon with his middle finger which was slashed nearly to the bone in a split. He finally subdued and arrested his assailant.

ON THE JOB

By Thos. Atkins

On the job however the pay,
You can see who's ever day,
Toiling, toiling and plodding on
That so much is staked upon.

Ever till the task is ended,
But that which the world depended;
You can see him sitting there
On the job tho foul or fair.

At his task however the pain,
While toiling back to health again;
Until ere long that zeath awakes,
And that glad hour of vigor takes.

PREJUDICE VS THE CONSTITUTION

Race prejudice is the most dangerous element in our country today. It is the basis of all discrimination, segregation and Jim Crowism, and many other evils. It has grown so strong until it has outlived the Constitution, depriving citizen Americans of their civil, political, educational and economic rights.

We are particularly interested in the turn which race prejudice has taken toward the purchasing of homes by colored people in the various cities of the North. Reports from Washington, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and other cities have been received to the effect that there is a concerted effort on the part of prejudicial whites to prevent Negroes from selecting the type of home in the locality they desire.

The home is the basic unit of our great government. Good citizenship is bred in the home. Loyalty, the fundamental element of good citizenship, is taught, very inspired in the home. The foundation for an American citizen is laid in the home. Morality, highly desirably as an element of good citizenship, is dependent upon a good home for its nurture and high standing. Christianity, if you please, is always taught and inspired around the fireside of a good home. Therefore, this apparent concerted prejudicial prevention of Negroes from purchasing a good home, in a desirable location, is a blow at every fundamental element of good citizenship, at the Constitution and the very progress and success of this great democratic government of ours.

Talking about a "Red" elimination of this country," we should recognize the "Red" in this effort to prevent Negroes purchasing desirable homes as the most damnable and dangerous element in the country today.

This prejudice is aimed strictly at the Negro. All other nationalities, whether Jew or Gentile, Chinese, Greek, Turk, Mexican, German or what not, can and do purchase homes even in the localities absolutely barred to Negroes. Yet, the Negro pays his taxes as well as all other people. He is subjected to the same laws and their enforcement, as all other people, if not a little more so. While his loyalty to this Government has never been questioned.

Character is not a qualification for purchasing a home. Bootleggers and all other law violators may purchase a home in the very block which would bar the Negro.

This country has made astounding progress in the past ten years. As a law abiding citizen of this country, the Negro is in every respect an American. As such he has profited, as has all other Americans, by this wonderful progress. Other Americans have made more money, built larger business enterprises, attended colleges and universities in larger numbers and desired and built larger, better and more modern homes. The Negro has gone thru the same experience. He has made more money, attended schools and graduated in larger numbers. His standard of living has been raised. He desires larger, better and more modern homes. Would he be human, would he be a good loyal American, could he be a good citizen to live in this inspiring atmosphere of astounding progress and not partake thereof? It is simply the natural course of events and when people permit their prejudices to take the upperhand of their reason, and attempt to prevent the purchase, building or establishment of a good home they are sowing the wind and may reap the whirlwind. They are striking at the very heart of our great government. They are a greater menace to this country than all of Soviet Russia ever could be.

The Col. Sprigle-Brilliante case will be watched with keen interest, by all well thinking people whether black or white.

WILL THE SENATE CONFIRM A KNOWN KLANSMAN?

We are glad that among the first duties of the Senate, when it convenes in December, will be to pass on or confirm the appointment of one Marion O. Dunning as Collector of Customs at the Port of Savannah, Ga.

Klansmen all over the United States are watching the case with equal interest, as Dunning will succeed or fail in this instance solely on the Klan issue. Members of the hooded body are standing on their hind legs fighting to keep one of their high officials in such a big public office.

It is a well known fact that Dunning's confirmation will be bitterly opposed by Negroes, Jews and Catholics, because of his high standing in Klan officialdom. He is said to be one of the national organizers for the hooded order, and as such he has been over zealous in his denunciation of the Negroes, Jews and Catholics, attacking their rights as citizens of this country.

Therefore, the Senators from the several states will be seiged with protests from many of their constituents against Dunning's appointment, and at the same time they will be urged to vote against his confirmation.

It rather seems providential that the case is to come before the Senate of the United States at this time. It will be a test as to whether these law makers are acting in the interest of right and justice or whether they act only as a matter of political expediency.

MOB PSYCHOLOGY

A few days ago, the inhabitants of a small town in New Jersey were all worked up to a frazzel over the report that a Negro had kidnapped a white child and fled in an automobile.

Circumstances and witness all tended to fix the flame by coming with reports that they had seen Raymond Pierce, a Negro, with the missing child in his car and were "positive" that it was he and no one else.

Colorphobia took possession of the police and the citizens, and a lively earnest hunt was begun for the accused Negro. Threats of lynching were on every lip. The newspapers of the town played up "Negro Kidnapper" in such language and tones as to excite mob violence. The father of the kidnapped child, who joined in the search, is quoted as saying almost continually, "I hope to God I find him before the police. I'll kill him like a snake."

Pierce was overtaken. He was dead. The kidnapper of the child had killed him. The mystery deepens. The irate mob still swears summary vengeance, as suspicion is laid on another Negro. But the police working on the case found other clues. A white youth, Harrison Noel, age 20, was arrested. When questioned, he led the police to the place where the body of little Mary Daley lay in a clump of weeds. He told how he had shot and killed her. He also told how he had shot and killed the Negro whom the mob had accused, and used the victim's automobile in kidnapping the child. When this news reached the townspeople, and they were informed that the kidnapper-murderer was white, the mob spirit left them. The father forgot his vow to God to "kill him like a snake." The murmurers, who, a short while ago, had only one language in their mouths, "lynching on the spot" lost that part of their vocabulary, and the only expressions now heard from the waiting mob were words of sympathy for the grief-stricken parents. Thus we see a bit of mob psychology.

It is not the crime that causes lynching—but the person accused. If the accused is a Negro, he should be lynched according to mob psychology; but if the accused is a white person, then the victim should have the sympathy of the community.

Comment and Opinion

Devoted to a Discussion of Social and Civic Problems and Events

By

GORDON H. SIMPSON

Executive Secretary, Urban League of St. Louis

The growing tendency of our St. Louisans to eliminate factional and group differences and pull together on matters affecting the welfare of our group is the question to which attention is invited at this time. The evidence that as a group we are cooperating more effectively is to be seen daily in our churches, business enterprises, professional life, as well as in community and social service problems faced by our people. Even our political life has seen more unity of action for betterment conditions affecting our people rather than being adherents of any particular party. Coupled with this cooperation is a growing confidence in race institutions, particularly in regard to business and social welfare.

There was never a time when the closest "pulling in harness" should characterize our actions than right now. We have many problems in which we need the cooperatoin of all of our organizations and individuals. [illegible] ...ed to race ... results on the Road Issue improvement Program as that affects our group. We need bath houses. We need several playgrounds. There is much to be done in securing more adequate housing facilities. There is still more to be done in securing recognition of our workers in different branches of industry and the business world.

Within the next two months, colored St. Louisans will have another opportunity to test out their ability to pull together for the success of common enterprise. This event will be the Fourth Annual Community Fund Campaign in which over fifty social service and welfare organizations throughout the city including our own Pine Street Y. M. C. A., Phyllis Wheatley Branch Y. W. C. A., Colored Orphans Home, Colored Old Folks Home, Provident Hospital, and the Urban League, will make an appeal to the public for funds to support their work during the calendar year 1926. In the past three years all have responded very liberally in subscriptions to the Community Fund. However, when the records have been checked at the close of the year it has been found that some of us as contributors have failed to keep our pledges. Of course, while it is true that in some instances sickness, death, unemployment, and other reasons have wholly prevented individuals from meeting these obligations, it is also true that there must be other cases where pledges have not been paid because of lack of interest, indifference, or seeming desire to avoid responsibility for such a promise.

We do not ever want to face in St. Louis the results of an indifferent attitude on the part of our group for the responsibility for social welfare within our group, as well as social service rendered in other sections of the population in St. Louis. If we can get to the place where a larger number of our people will think in terms of supporting our agencies, then it will not be a very long time before the desire will be extended to support all social agencies and not just those that relieve sickness, distress and unemployment or provide wholesome recreation among the members of our group only.

Here then is a real opportunity for demonstrating our team work. When the appeal comes we can answer the call with an "I will." St. Louis is looking to us with a big request to "Show me!" Let's get together and secure big results in cash contributions and paid subscriptions to the Community Fund during 1925.

Perry Howard in Charge

Col. Johnson's law partner, Perry W. Howard, who is Special Assistant to the U. S. Attorney General and Republican National Committeeman from Mississippi, was in full charge of the obsequies, which were simple throughout, but marked with rare sympathy, as the long line of mourners silently followed the remains up to the altar. The remains were interred at Harmony cemetery, after the ritual of the Elks, of which the deceased had been Grand Local Adviser for a number of years beginning with the Administration of J. Finley Wilson, for whom Col Johnson worked untiringly, during the Convention at Richmond, Va.

RACE ASKED TO OBSERVE SEPT. 22

The National Equal Rights League Declares "Emancipation To Save The Republic Day"

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 17, 1925 "September 22nd is one of the greatest days in the history of Americans of African descent, having vied with only by January 1st, which cannot be distinctive, being New Year's day, greatest because the day of issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation in 1862. It should be annually noticed, not, however, as a reminder of past slavery, but to remind all America that the Emancipation was declared as the only means to save the Union of states by using the fighting power of the Colored race to rescue the Republic from the destruction by the South."

Ban Lack of Democracy

Such is the opening clause of an appeal to the race nationally to publicly observe September 22nd as an "Emancipation to save the Republic" day in every country, town or city by race mass meetings or conventions.

The League declares that the Colored race, as a great racial group or element, the only race in the U. S. A. denied liberty and justice, should come together in every place to go over its situation as to treatment and get ready in unity and spirit to wage a renewed, united crusade on its own independent account and resources for equality and justice, at each meeting making the abolition of federal segregation and lynching the paramount objects of this race-conference positive, renewed push forward, but including all race deprivations.

Want National Delegates

In its appeal the League urges that at each such local mass meeting or convention on September 22, delegates be elected to a National Race Mass Convention against federal segregation and lynching to be held soon thereafter as the League's 18th annual meeting. A year after the presidential campaign in which all elements of the race made public complaint against segregation, neglect and lynching and before Congress opens, is high and proper time for the race to bring to bear its own united moral and political power in national race assembly as an additional asset to all other forms of help, with all racial bodies participating. Is the call clarion of the League's "Call to Arms" for rights 63 years after Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation as a Call to Arms of the race out of slavery into soldiers ranks to save the land from rebellion.

Every pastor, fraternal, civic and equal rights leader or worker and every race-loyal citizen is urged to bring to pass such a local mass convention, holding them under the auspices of racial Citizens or Equal Rights Committee being especially recommended, but the method is left to the race in each community.

STOPS DISCRIMINATION IN MICHIGAN PARKS

BAY CITY, Mich., Sept. 16.—The determination with which Wm. A. Powell pursued an attempt to bar him from the "Bay City State Park," resulted in the intervention of the superintendent of state parks, P. J. Hoffman, and the condemning of discriminative practices in any of the state parks.

In his denunciation, Supt. Hoffman declared: "Our state parks are owned by the people and are, therefore, open to everyone regardless of color or creed—as long as they conform with the rules and regulations of the parks."

The white caretaker of Bay City State Park, W. H. Brvingham, attempted to stop Powell from camping there for two weeks because certain whites objected to it.

AWARDED GOLD MEDAL FOR WORK IN PHARMACY

Miss M. E. Lewis, Howard U. Graduate Receives Prize In National Contest

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The winner of a honor prize for notable work in the field of Pharmacy for 1925 is Miss Mozella E. Lewis of Washington, D. C., who was awarded the Lehn and Fink Gold Medal. The medal is awarded each year to the student who achieves the greatest proficiency in pharmacy or who writes the best thesis on pharmacy. Some forty colleges throughout the U. S. are included in the award.

Miss Lewis submitted a thesis entitled A History of the Negro In Pharmacy, which was adjudged the prize winner. The thesis was published in full in the August issue of "The American Druggist." It contained valuable data as will a full and complete account of the Negroes' activity in pharmacy.

WOMAN 100, IS STRANDED

On Train Per Memphis. Lacks Ticket, Is Put Off At Olathe, Kan.

OLATHE, Kan., Sept. 16.—A colored woman, whose early life harks back to the days of Lincoln, is stranded in Olathe, Kans.

She is Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, who says she is 100 years old. She was put off a Frisco passenger train here at midnight.

Mrs. Smith said she had shown her ticket to a porter and boarded the train in Kansas City for Memphis, Tenn. When the conductor came along her ticket could not be found.

Mrs. Smith said she had a daughter Mrs. Deuble, living in Kansas City, but her memory was faulty as to further details of address.

RIFF GENERAL DECLARED GREAT BY NEWSPAPER

Southern Daily Calls Abd-El-Krim One Of Great Personal Leaders Of Whom World Has Seen Few

"Just the leader of a hill tribe of dark-skinned people, wild, untutored, semi-civilized. Two years ago his name was hardly known outside North Africa.

"But today he is leading the greatest armies Africa has known against the trained troops of France and Spain." Thus began an editorial entitled "Abd-El-Krim," which appeared this week in one of Texas' leading dailies.

Stand For Freedom

"His own Riffians," the article went on to read, "have linked with them their neighboring tribes, of every different race but of the same Mohammedan religion, and they are making the most determined bid for freedom from white race dominance that the Europeans have experienced in years or decades.

"Having driven the Spanish to a line of forts on the coast Abd-El-Krim turned aside into French colonial territory to capture Fez, the 'holy city' of North Africa, and to dethrone the puppet Sultan there under whose alleged authority the French and the Spanish claim to operate.

"It is hard to understand from this [illegible] ... down on himself the enmity of the French, but doubtless he considered his actions necessary to the eventual freeing of his country.

"In any case he invited the armed assault of the two European nations, and he rallied his tribesmen and their allied tribes for real war.

His Great Generalship

"It was not such an easy matter. The tribes had never known unified control. There were jealousies and rivalries. There was difference of race. There were false leaders who were willing to sell their countrymen to France and Spain for private fortunes and position. There was ignorance of the people, easily played on. There was memory of the bitter experience of the past, when the white man, though outnumbered, had been unconquerable with his mighty engines of war.

"But Abd-Krim and his brother aroused the natives for war. Savage tribesmen who knew nothing of the science of warfare except how to fire a rifle were whipped into a military system. A people without knowledge of chemistry or mechanics were taught the use of heavy artillery. And the artillery and munitions were bought by stealthy agents from France herself while Paris was blind to the coming war cloud on her own horizon and wholly unable to see the traffic in arms that constituted a breach of international law against Spain.

"So today Abd-El-Krim has his 130,000 warriors, hardly civilized, but unafraid, skilled in the tactics of warfare suitable to their own country and making use of the best of modern arms.

"But arrayed against him are 300,000 trained troops of France and Spain, many of them veterans of terrible warfare, supported by more than 100 armed ships, and a great fleet of airplanes.

"Huge bombs, unknown even in the days of the world war, are being rained upon his defenses. Tremendous naval guns clear the way for the landing of troops wherever the Europeans wish. Poison gas, of which the Riffs know nothing, is being turned on them by the Spanish.

Courage Undaunted

"And yet the tribal leader is meeting his enemies in fierce battle. Tenacious assaults have won him ground at important points. His shock troops are gathered for unyielding defense along the line of his capital. The Europeans must wade through a sea of blood to conquer him.

"Whatever the outcome the honor of the day already rests with Abd-El-Krim. He may be cruel, he may be as uncivilized as his enemies paint him, but he has proved himself one of those great personal leaders of whom the modern world has seen so few.

"He has dared the lightning, and it seems inevitable that the lightning will strike; but at least he can be admired for daring it for the sake of his people's independence."

Hez Hecks says: "I allus sympathize with the feller who wants to pay his debts, but ain't got the money to do it with."

WHITE HIGHWAYMEN SLAY GIRL'S ESCORT

LOS ANGELES, Calif. Sept. 16.—Sylvester Thomas, 27, of 1473 West 27th Street was shot to death when he grappled with one of two white highwaymen who held up he and his companion, Miss Bertha Jones of 2212 Central Avenue, while they were out driving. The robber drove up in a machine while Thomas was investigating trouble. They covered him and his companion with a pistol and after robbing them, marched them to a vacant lot and started to flee, but Thomas caught one of the men and tried to subdue him. In the struggle the robber shot Thomas, the bullet piercing his spine and passing through his body. Neither of the assailants have been apprehended.

100,000 VETS WILL ATTEND LEGION MEET

Buddies Of Flanders Will Recall Days Of 1918 At 7th Annual National Meet In Omaha Oct. 5-9.

PRES. COOLIDGE INVITED

Will Address Legionaires. Anticipate Best Meet In History. Plan Elaborate Program.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16—When President Coolidge delivers his address Oct. 6 before the seventh national convention of the American Legion at Omaha, Neb., more than 100,000 colored and white veterans of the world war attending this greatest of all legion conventions will be with in sound of his voice, either in the convention hall proper, or at designated places throughout the city where loud speakers will convey the President's words to the assembled "buddies" as distinctly as though they were in the convention hall, it was announced at legion headquarters here Monday.

Many circumstances have combined to make this convention not only the greatest, but one of the most interesting ever held by the former soldiers. The presence of Calvin Coolidge, the first President of the United States to attend a convention of the legion, is in itself sufficient to attract tens of thousands of legionnaires—men who bore arms in their country's defense, but who have never until now had the privilege of having the President of the United States address their convention and review them as they march by in swinging columns—"eyes right" as in 1919— 100,000 strong.

Aid In Transportation

The convention will be opened formally Oct. 5, and continue through Friday, Oct. 9. As at former conventions, all railroads throughout the United States have granted the privilege of round trip tickets to the convention city and return for the price of the regular one way fare. Legionnaires and members of the American Legion Auxiliary should apply to the adjutants of their posts for the blanks entitling them to these one-half fare tickets.

Dozens of special trains have already been arranged for, while 800 special Pullman cars have been engaged by various posts and departments for the round trip. Legionnaires in these will reside in their special cars during the convention. A huge Pullman city of parked cars will be provided, equipped with water, light and telephone service. In addition the regular trains and electric interurban lines will bring their tens of thousands.

Many Events Arranged

A quarter of a million dollars is the most conservative estimate obtainable from Omahans of the sums spent or to be expended by the various organizations for the visiting veterans. Chief among these will be the great parade, with 100,000 service men in line. They will be reviewed by President Coolidge, Commander Drais, Gen. Pershing, if he returns from South America in time.

Ten thousand regular army soldiers will take part in the various military maneuvers scheduled, including infantry, cavalry, artillery, air service, chemical warfare service, signal corps. Smoke screens of huge dimensions will be laid by swift airplanes, while attack and defense dentonstrations reminiscent of 1918, will be executed by the doughboys in realistic manner.

Three big caravans of cowboys from the cow ranges of the west will put on an "ear down" rodeo in true Western style, with more than one hundred outlaw horses to tame for the entertainment of the soldiers. Then there will be the $75,000 electrical parade the floats of which will illustrate passages from the preamble to the constitution of the American Legion.

Music by 250 Bands.

In addition to these will be the contests and concerts indulged in by 250 bands and 750 drum and bugle corps of various legion "posts," the "mutt" parade with prizes of Colorado burros for the winners; a $15,000 night display of fireworks, occupying 300 men and entire evening of set off, and four trainloads of captured German war trophies, including huge siége guns of the type which battered the allied defenses early in the war.

Will Meet Old Pals

An elaborate system of registration has been prepared, whereby legionnaires, upon presentation of their membership cards at the registration booths surrounding the Courthouse, will immediately have a separate card devoted to each containing name, wartime outfit, home address, Omaha address and telephone number. Huge files have been devised to retain these cards and trained operatives will handle them during the convention so that it will be possible for a veteran to ascertain whether certain of his "buddies" are in attendance, and how to locate them.

A FUGITIVE LEAPS FROM WINDOW OF TRAIN

Associated Negro Press

SUMTER, S. C., Sept. 16.—When officers searching for the slayers of W. A. Howard, an Atlantic line patrolman, sought to apprehend Willie Jackson, whom they discovered riding in one of the trains, near Monteith, Jackson escaped by leaping thru one of the windows of the car.

COBB DISCUSSES NEGRO INDUSTRIAL CONDITION

E. W. Baker, Correspondent

BUNCETON, Mo., September 14, 1925—Prof. R. S. Cobb, Executive Secretary of the Missouri Negro Industrial Commission, addressed the Negro Industrial Exposition at Bunceton, Mo., September 3rd, 1925 on the educational, economic and industrial status of the Negroes of the State. After commending the members of the exposition on their excellent work in seeking to develop the economic side of our people, Cobb said: "If we as a race expect to cope with other races, we must develop more producers, which means we must buy and cultivate more land.

Migration to Cities

"One of the greatest problems confronting us today is the problem of migration to the large cities. In Missouri approximately 75 per cent of our people live in cities; while only 25 percent live in rural districts. Only a small number of us are producers. What is the result? The price of living in the cities is so high that often we cannot buy or rent in desirable localities. Housing and health conditions are alarming, and the situation is not conducive to good citizenship. It is recorded that the births of our people in the cities exceed the deaths by four; the births in the rural districts exceed the deaths by 59. If health and other conditions are better in the rural districts, why do we migrate to the cities?"

Remedy

In answer to this question, Cobb said: "The educational facilities, including buildings, equipment, and often the teaching force in our rural communities are entirely inadequate to meet the needs of the present day. Until the problem of the rural schools is solved in a satisfactory manner, our people will continue to leave the rural districts in large numbers, in order to give their children proper educational advantages. There have been some attempts made to supply a remedy, but they were unsuccessful. The County Unit Bill, which met defeat in the General Assembly of the State some years ago, and the Community School Bill, which failed to pass in the 53rd General Assembly would have helped our cause. The defeat of these measures caused us to face the same problems we faced twenty years ago."

Industry

Discussing the industry of the Negroes of the State in the light of future possibilities, Cobb said: "In industry the Negroes of Missouri are making good. Replies to questionnaires sent out from our office indicate that their work is satisfactory. Negro labor in southeast Missouri is largely responsible for the splendid progress that Missouri is making as a cotton state Our people in the large cities have now more business enterprises than at any other time in the history of our state. Co-operation is the keynote of the whole situation. Co-operation in business will make Missouri safe for our posterity, and will eventually make it a greater commonwealth in which to live."

The ground floor being above the ground line of the lot, full length windows are possible in the ground story, giving opportunity for advantageous lighting of the rooms of the ground floor, unobstructed; also convenient approach to the boiler and fuel rooms.

IN GENERAL.

The building is designed to be two stories high above the ground floor, with the front portion carried up three stories. It will thus have a well broken skyline presenting a graceful and pleasant appearance.

There are three entrances to the first floor from Laclede avenue, the main entrance being located on the central longitudinal axis of the building, the other two giving directly to the east and the west secondary corridors and stairways.

CORRIDORS AND STAIRWAYS.

There are two main double stairways, well-lighted and located at the intersection of the main and secondary corridors; also two main single stairways, well lighted at the extreme end of the secondary corridors. This will provide for rapid circulation of pupils and will minimize distance between the various parts of the building.

The first two main stairways, above mentioned are in double flights from ground floor to second floor (equivalent to four flights of stairs) so that the file of pupils passing down on one side will be independent of the file of pupils passing up on the other side of the stairway, making perfect order in the movement of pupils between class periods, possible. Two single flights of stairways are arranged from the ground to the second floors.

The main corridor on each floor is 16'-0" wide and the secondary corridors 10'-0" wide, all having direct outside light.

CLASS ROOM

The class rooms are distributed on the various floors, arranged for unilateral lighting and are conveniently grouped with respect to corridors and stairways, no room receiving light from rooms but all having outside light and air, and will accommodate pupils in single seats as follows:

20 rooms, size 21'x32', at 45 pupils each 1350

SCIENCE LABORATORIES.

The Science Laboratories are located on the first and ground floors, four in number, all of which will be 20'x45'.

MECHANICAL DRAWING ROOMS.

Two mechanical drawing rooms are arranged on the third floor, each room 21' and 21'x53' respectively, and well lighted.

ART ROOMS.

Two art rooms arranged on the second floor, each size 20'-0"x28'-0". Both receiving ample outside light from one side and from skylight overhead, each having a store room directly connected therewith.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

The Domestic Science group consists of two sewing rooms each 21' with fitting and store room accessible to bath. Two cooking rooms 21' also a household art suite consisting of a living room with disappearing bed, clothes and linen closet, dining room, pantry, kitchen, reception hall and bath room, all receiving outside light.

A varied bench 30' below a light court and lighting by skylight overhead; also a printing shop 21', unflaterally lighted. A sign painting shop 21'x46' and an electric shop 20', also, an unassigned shop 30'x60'.

ADMINISTRATION.

The administration rooms are grouped on the first floor east of the main entrance. They consist of a general office 21' with storage vault and work room, a reception room and a principal's and an assistant principal's office, each provided with lavatory and toilet.

Lesson for September 20

PAUL WRITES TO THE THESSALONIANS

LESSON-TEXT—I Thess. 2:1-12, 4:13-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—In everything give thanks: for . . . this.—I Thess. 5:18.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul's Love for His Friends.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How Paul Worked in Thessalonica.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul's Devotion to His Work.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Spirit and Method of Paul's Work.

While the lesson committee has selected this brief passage in the second chapter for printing, the intention was to present the message of the entire epistle, all was on Paul's second missionary journey that the church at Thessalonica was founded as seen in the last lesson. After crossing into Europe at Philippi, where he was imprisoned. From Philippi he went to Thessalonica. The people there were largely Gentiles.

I. The Salutation (ch. 1:1).

Timothy and Silas were associated with Paul in this missionary journey, and they are associates of Paul in this message.

II. Paul's Thanksgiving (1:2-10).

1. For Their Faith, Love and Hope (v. 2-4).

This triad of graces testified of their election of God.

2. How They Received the Gospel (v. 5).

It was in the power of the Holy Spirit.

3. Joyful Obedience (v. 6).

4. Exemplary Lives (v. 7).

5. Missionary activities (v. 8).

6. Turned From Idols (vv. 9-10).

III. Character of Paul's Ministry (2:1-12).

It would seem from this defense that some of the Jews had called into question his ministry. He defends himself by showing the character of his ministry.

1. It Was Courageous (vv. 1-2).

2. Honest and Guileless (vv. 3-4).

As one sent of God, he faithfully ministered unto them, not courting man's favor.

3. Without Flattering Words (v. 5).

4. Without a Cloak of Covetousness (v. 5).

5. Did Not Seek Glory From Man (v. 6).

6. Gentle and Affectionate (vv. 7-8).

So vitally did he enter into the lives of the people that he displayed a gentleness as a nursing mother with her children.

7. Unselfish (v. 9).

In order that his motive be not questioned, he labored night and day for his support.

8. Irreproachable and Blameless (v. 10).

He did not claim to be faultless, but he challenged them as to his blamelessness.

9. His Lofty Aim (vv. 11-12).

That they would walk worthy of God in keeping with their high calling.

IV. How the Gospel Was Received (2:13-16).

As the very Word of God.

V. Paul's Desire for the Thessalonians (2:17-3:13).

1. He Endeavored to See Them Face to Face, but Was Hindered by Satan (2:17-18).

2. He Declared Them to Be His Crown of Rejoicing (2:19-20).

His hope of meeting his converts at Christ's second coming was his crown of rejoicing.

3. Timothy Sent to Them (3:1-10).

It was with a report that furnished the information concerning this church.

4. He Prayed for Them (3:11-13).

VI. Sins Rebuked (4:1-12).

1. Unchastity (vv. 1-5).

2. Dishonesty (vv. 6-8).

3. Lack of Brotherly Love (vv. 9-10).

4. For Being Busybodies (v. 11).

5. Idleness (v. 11).

VII. Doctrinal Errors Corrected (4:13-5:11).

1. As to Sorrow Unduly (v. 13).

It was needless to their misunderstanding of the meaning of the coming of the Lord that they were indulging in excessive sorrow.

2. The Resurrection (vv. 13-18).

(1) The departed saints will come back with Jesus (vv. 14).

(2) Living Believers Will Be Caught Up With Them (v. 17).

3. Time of the Lord's Coming Unknown (5:1-11).

The exhortation is "be ready," watch.

VIII. Concluding Exhortations (5:12-28).

Sin, Grace, Humility

No sin is so offensive to God, and so injurious to the soul as pride. No grace is so commended, both by precept and example, as humility.—Ryle.

Truth

Truth is not of man's making, but of God's revelation. Hear it in the house of God.—American Lutheran.

To Be Thankful

To be thankful is to be especially Christlike.—Russell H. Conwell.

BEREA PRESBYTERIAN

The Ladies' Aid gave a fine example to the other church societies by promptly taking up the work on the first Thursday. The ways and committee made its report which was adopted as the campaign plan of the church. Reports: Mrs. Nanule Mitchell and Mr. D. Wade to corral those who are commemorating the quarter century by giving ten cents for each year they have lived and Mrs. J. C. Cheney and Mrs. Ruth Beckett, those who will give in the good old fashioned way. It is a friendly rivalry between the Liberals and Conservatives. Can a new plan beat the old one? We shall see. It is natural for some people to cling to the old and quite as natural for other to love the new. Both supercommends are necessary. Without the old, we would be always experimenting and without the new, we would never get anywhere. We must be glad to be both as aggressive. The C. E. vacation experience meeting was refreshing. We got to journey north, south and east with the speakers and added some useful information on religious and social conditions. The young vacationist who was afraid of a "Loose" snake, had never seen one except in a cage. Mrs. Elizabeth Sampler is slowly recovering from a painful infection on the right hand. Texana White, formerly a member, is quite sick. Mrs. Cooper, mother of Mrs. T. H. Bradbury and Miss Janie Cooper, is unwearied in speaking "Disappearing." Mrs. Wilbur Himphries and son Charles, now of Chicago, were visitors Sunday. Endeavorer Townsend made his description of his vacation very realistic. The pastor is to address the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Friday evening. The Sunday School has made a splendid start for the fall work. Come and sing with us. There no facts in God's world that contradict the facts of God's word. Fifty-five per cent of our visitors today are past fifty, and seventy-seven per cent are over forty. Who will take their places? They are dying off more rapidly than they are being ordained. Christianity must claim the devotion of our school children today.

COMMUNITY FESTIVAL AT LANE WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Do you remember the "Million Dollar Wedding" of 1924 given by the prolifferous H. W. Evans club of Lane Tabernacle? Well this same "Evans Club" which seems to have everything is coming out again this Wednesday night with a festival in which they invite the entire community to join. To be frank about it those Evans club members have gone and given it a bigger name than that, why they are even calling it "The million Dollar banquet". Well, seeing that the Evans club is named for one of the best ministers that ever trod a pulpit they can go right on and give their banquet that expensive name. Bro. O. W. Johnson, the president, says a fine program will be rendered after which those present will be served anything from turkey gobbler to plum pudding alamode.

The Lane clubs are entwined in their big fall drama which will close Sunday, October 11. At this momentous time Lane Tabernacle requests five dollars worth of money from each individual, whose name rests on its roll. Mr. E. C. Campbell says, the Drew Street Baptist church has more cash money than any other organization, and that Mrs. Emma Brad ford's "Pace makers" will have to take second honors. He also says it will be the biggest fall rally we have had for many years. It is presumable that Mr. Campbell is right, so we bid you good day.

LIBERTY CONGREGATIONAL

Last Sunday we were given a very happy and unique experience. Instead of the usual discourse by the pastor, Mr. DeNoir, a new acquisition to the Summer faculty, gave a brief outline of his thesis offered for his Master's degree at the University of Iowa. In the execution of this exhaustive study Mr. DeNoir made a very large number of comparative mental tests of groups of white and colored children in Gary, Detroit and Indianapolis. He demonstrated beyond paradventure that where social conditions are equal there is a corresponding equality of mental capacity in the two groups. In every instance where other authorities, after making comparative tests, made deductions of lesbian mental capacity of the Negro he showed an inequality of some of the social factors incident to the groups compared.

ROSE OF SHARON BAPTIST

1719 Morgan Street

Sunday School was very good at 11 a. m. After devotional, the lesson was read by Rev. E. Z. Hunter, Tim. 2:1-9. Prayer was offered by Rev. Walker. Then our own Bro. Curtis Harris came to us with an effective sermon from John 3:24, with closing remarks by the pastor. At 6:30 the B. Y. P. U. service was wonderful. Many visitors were present. At 8 p. m. the lesson was read by Rev. Richardson from Rom. 10th chapter. Prayer by Rev. Harris of Kansas City, after which our pastor came to us with a spiritual sermon from Matt. 22:42, subject: "What think ye of Christ and whose son is He?" Bro. C. W. Harris departed for Kansas City to attend school as we were college. He will be very much missed from his church. A goodly number of the members accompanied Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Fletcher to their home in Venice, Ill., where they reported a wholesome dinner.
Rev. J. W. Fletcher, Pastor.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST

1702 Wash St.

Sunday school opened as usual at 9:30 o'clock. At 11:30, Rev. S. V. Terry preached a wonderful sermon from Rev. 3:8, which we all enjoyed. One accession to the church during morning service. Warren of Mississippi preached a splendid and soul stirring sermon from Luke 23:14, which we all enjoyed. Sunday is covenant day. We ask each and every one to come and be with us in the covenant meeting on Sunday afternoon.

MISSOURI NEGRO INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 16.—Secretary Robert S. Cobb addressed the Cooper County Negro Industrial Exposition on Thursday of last week. Mr. E. B. Bastner of Bunceton, deserves much credit for the splendid showing made at the fair.

This department has assurance from our State Commissioner of Labor, Hon. Roy Hinkle, that there is not likely to be a repetition of racial disturbances which recently occurred in the southeastern section of St. Louis. The disturbance was not general—occurred on one farm near Bragg City.

This department is receiving a large number of calls for families for the cotton section. During the past week three families were placed in the cotton section. Most of the families were from large cities and expressed themselves as not being able to pay rent and care for themselves other than in the city.

Many students at Lincoln University have made application for positions in the city. As a rule most of the positions are filled the year before as many students have secured permanent places for three or four years at a time until they can complete their education. When possible we shall be glad to care for the needs of student.

Persons desiring bulletins on the work of this department will kindly write the Secretary at room 304 State Capitol.

Nothing Compares With Dr. Fred Palmer's Skin Whitener Declares This Lady From Virginia

Mrs. Mary W. Banks, Dunnville, Va., says: "I have found nothing to compare with Dr. Fred Palmer's Skin Whitener Preparations for the complexion."

Among the "F. F. Vs" of Virginia, where ladies are judged by their grace of manner and charm of beauty, in fact, ladies in all walks of life, from Maine to California, and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, are improving their beauty, renewing the youthful texture of their skin and lightening their complexions with Dr. Fred Palmer's Skin Whitener Preparations, and there is a special preparation for each need. The Skin Whitener for lightening the complexion; Skin Whitener Soap and Powder for smoothing and beautifying the complexion and Hair Dresser for properly grooming milady's tresses.

Any complexion, no matter how dark, muddy or oily, Dr. Fred Palmer's Skin Whitener Preparations will transform it like magic into a lovely, soft, velvety skin—the blotches and tan marks vanish, pimples clear up, the skin becomes clearer and lighter and the excessive oil which causes "shine" disappears.

Women everywhere are simply wild about Dr. Fred Palmer's Soap and Powder, for it is delightfully fragrant, clings to the skin nicely and has a soft satiny appearance. Wind does not blow it off, it prevents oil from forming on the skin and keeps the face from chapping in all kinds of weather.

Dr. Fred Palmer has developed the most marvellous Hair Dressing known to science. It makes the hair straight, soft, long and luxuriant, removes dandruff, keeps the scalp healthy and makes the hair grow. No hair too stiff or crinkly for it to improve.

Dr. Fred Palmer's Skin Whitener Preparations—four in all—Skin Whitener, Skin Whitener Soap, Skin Whitener Powder and Hair Dressing—may be had from almost any toilet goods counter where the race people. Be sure you get the genuine by insisting upon Dr. FRED Palmer's, and if your dealer cannot supply you, they will be sent direct from the laboratory upon receipt of price, 25c each, or the four for one dollar. If you want to try before you buy, send 4c in stamps for free samples of Skin Whitener Ointment, Skin Whitener Face Powder and Skin Whitener Soap, addressing Dr. Fred Palmer's Laboratories, Dept. R-3, Atlanta, Ga.

A SIX-CYLINDER PROBLEM

By ALBON LEWIS HOLSEY
For The Associated Negro Press

McCready Sykes, who writes "The Obverse Side" in Commerce and Finance, was very much disturbed and grieved in a recent issue of that publication because a colored friend of his took owns a six-cylinder automobile. Mr. Sykes' comment is as follows:

"A few nights ago we had a small dinner party. As we sat on the veranda after dinner, watching the people and cars that occasionally passed the most impressive object in the foreground was a beautiful six-cylinder car drawn up at the curb. It was a fine, powerful machine, redolent of what the advertisements call quiet elegance, of more impressive appearance and of manifestly higher market value than any of the cars of our guests.

"We explained to our friends that the car was not ours, but belonged to a colored friend of our cook, who is of the same race. It merely happens that our cook does not sport a similar car himself. His friend had dropped in to pass the time of day and was generously helping him in washing the dishes, after which the two often figures drove off in state."

Then follows an interesting discussion of the high cost of living and of economics in general.

Two typically American "habits of thought" are revealed in Mr. Sykes' observation—the one so admirably summed up by Dr. Moton, principal of Tuskegee Institute, in one of his recent addresses when he said, "Society is inclined to make too invidious a comparison between the man who sells shoes and the man who sells his labor", and the other is the assumption to arbitrarily define for the Negro "his place" in American life.

Judging from the general trend of Mr. Sykes' writings, it would not be fair to him to venture the opinion that he, like millions of other white people has never conversed with a colored person except those of the servant class.

He is the type who if he entered the men's room on a pullman car and found that the only wash basin available was one which a colored passenger was using would wince, hesitate and look around half appealingly to the other white men in the room before proceeding with his toilet.

Probably he would not be insulting to the colored man, as so often happens, but many unanswered questions would cross his mind and he would be equally as puzzled, over the situation as he was about the colored man in the six-cylinder automobile.

Mr. Sykes is an authority on economics and a most convincing writer and the very fact that his state of mind is typical is a matter of grave importance to the Negro.

There is no greater tragedy in America today than the state of mind which considers the Negro only in terms of a servant. The result is that no Negro no matter how well trained or efficient he may be, has an open field and a fair fight" to secure a single one of the so-called "white collar" jobs offered by America.

A few months ago a colored man gave up in discouragement a position he held in a bank in a small New England city. Eighteen years ago he began working at that bank as a messenger, and pretty soon it was discovered that he was not only reliable but intelligent. He was promoted to the position of supply clerk and purchasing agent. When he grew out of that place he was given a desk and placed in charge of the adjustment of complaints.

During all these years this colored man was studying the banking business from all angles and his very efficiency became embarrassing to the officers of the bank, for, by this time he was entitled to a vice-presidency. The president of the bank told him so and then added that "but", which is so familiar to colored people.

The colored man held on, however, himself had trained to take his place in the supply room was given the vice-presidency which he had merited, and was entitled to receive. Then he resigned.

A young colored woman in Oklahoma passed the civil service examination for the position of stenographer. Somehow her racial identity escaped the alert eye of the person who passes on the photographs of applicants and she was offered a place in one of the bureaus in Washington. Very promptly she journeyed to Washington and presented herself for the job. The man in charge of the bureau was stickened when he saw her. After stalling around for a time he finally asked the young woman what machine she accustomed to use.

"Underwood," replied the young woman.

"Well, I am sorry," he said," we only use stenographers in this department who have used Remingtons."

The young woman spent several fruitless months in Washington endeavoring to "get by" the subtle, vicious circle of discrimination, but finally gave up in disgust.

Instances of this kind can be related by almost any colored person one meets.

Thousands of Negroes do hold white collar jobs but there are jobs created by Negroes themselves who have since emancipation reduced their illiteracy from 90 per cent to 10 per cent; established seventy-three banks whose total capitalization is $6,250,000 and whose annual clearings amount to $1,000,000; organized more than one hundred insurance companies whose total assets are $7,500,000, and value of policies in force $250,000,000 and accumulated over $2,000,000,000 in wealth.

Not bad, Mr. Sykes, with all the discouragement and handicaps which the Negro faces.

Some day an able and resourceful writer is going to discover, and then be generous enough to admit, that the Negro is the miracle of the age and not the problem.

SAVES NICKEL BY WALKING. MEETS PAIR OF FOOTPADS AND LOSES $600 SAVINGS

Preston News Services

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 16.—Saving a nickel by walking from Roseville avenue and Orange street to Bloomfield avenue Thursday afternoon Miss Ella Peterson of Mont Clair, lost $600. According to the woman she told the police last Thursday night.

Miss Peterson had drawn the money which represented the savings of many years from the National Bank of Roseville. Instead of taking a Market Line Bus and transferring to a Montclair trolley car at Bloomfield and Roseville avenue, she decided to save the five cents and walk the distance, about a mile. She started down Par-avenue, across Branch Brook Park.

As she reached Parker street, she told the police, two men stepped down side of her, and threatening her with death if she made an outcery, grabbed the handbag in which she had the money and fled. During the struggle the woman made a cry for help, but the men made their escape.

COTTON PICKERS GO TO WORK IN AUTOS

Associated Negro Press

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 16.—Plantation owners in this state are being hard put this day by the scarcity of high-cost of labor. Cotton pickers used to crowd around the big house early in the morning, waiting for a chance to go to work. Now they own second hand automobiles for themselves and many come in their own cars, running from four to eight cylinders. The old prices for picking were 30 to 50 cents a hundred—that was 10 years ago—and the pickers now demand four $1.25 to $1.50 and don't seem satisfied. The laborers who are not making an effort to come North, are going to work on the public highways, in factories and in the mines.

GUARD KILLS PRISONER WHO ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE

Associated Negro Press

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 16—While the prison warden was reading a letter to Neal McKinnon, a prisoner in the state penitentiary, from a fellow negro girl, who was serving a life sentence for murder her, McKinnon was busy with a club beating up one of the guards and attempting to make his escape. Seeing that he had accomplished George May, the guard, another prisoner attendant approached and fired shots that resulted fatally for McKinnon. Officials found a letter in the dead man's pocket, written to a woman, presumably his sister, in which he told her that he planned to make his escape and leave the state.

WASTE AND UNSOCIAL POLICIES IN COUNTRY'S ALMSHOUSES, COSTLY

Dilapidation, Inadequacy And Even Indecency Are Features Report States

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The "average" inmate of almshouses in this country requires $334.64 annually for maintenance, lives on 4.02 acres of land, of which 2.14 acres is cultivated for his maintenance, and which, with stock and farm equipment, is worth per inmate, $363.13. The per capita value of the buildings and equipment in which he is housed is $1,188.36. The average maintenance cost, per inmate, ranges from $187.53 a year in Alabama to $867.10 in Nevada.

These figures on the cost of maintaining the nation's almshouses have been compiled by the United States bureau of labor statistics and are published in bulletin No. 386.

The report covers 2,161 or 35 per cent of the public paupers institutions of the country.

The report also contains brief sketches of various systems of almshouses, the character of their supervision and inmate populations, and quotes state reports on their physical and social conditions.

More than one-third of the almshouses covered by the report are operated for less than 10 inmates each, and considerably more than one-half for less than 25 inmates each.

That this multiplicity of small almshouses results in unnecessarily high costs, inefficient methods and inadequate care is demonstrated in the report.

The unavoidable conclusion seems to be that dilapidation, inadequacy and even indecency are the outstanding physical features of most of our small almshouses," the report states. "Disorderliness, untidiness and apparent lack of comprehension of the social element involved in the conduct of a public institutions are characteristic of a large part of their managing persons. Among the inmates themselves insanity, feeble-mindedness, depravity and disrespectable old age are mingled in hopeless confusion. It is idle, then, to imagine that social conditions in these institutions could be other than deplorable.

"Practically everywhere the small almshouse stands out as the victim of a web of indifference and neglect which begins first with a public which either knows nothing of its existence or has so little concern that it pays no attention to conditions. Given an indifferent public, it is rarely indeed that the elected officials of that public will feel or show a deeper interest."

Questions And Answers In Negro History

By GEORGE WELLS PARKER
Author Of
"The Children of the Sun"

Questions pertaining to Negro history anywhere, of general interest and not too long, will be answered by Mr. Parker in this column. When space will not permit or the subject is not suitable, letters will be personally answered, subject to proper limitations, and when a stamped envelope is enclosed. Address all communications to George Wells Parker, the Associated Negro Press, 3423 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

This column is conducted by George Wells Parker, author of "The Children of the Sun," and founder of the Humbolt League. He will be glad to answer in this column all questions of a reasonable length. Where space will not permit, he will answer correspondents who inclose postage for a return reply. Questions for him should be addressed to George Wells Parker, Associated Negro Press, 3423 Indiana avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Could you assist me in finding a photo or likeness of Benjamin Banneker?—W. W. T., Norfolk, Va.

Dr. Arthur Schomberg of New York informs me that you will find a picture of Benjamin Bannaker in an issue of the Journal of Negro History, edited by Woodson. As far as he (Mr. Schomberg) knows, this is the only photo of the scientist extant.

Were the Moors who once governed Spain of Negro blood. Did Lincoln have Negro blood?—J. C. M., Elgin, Texas.

The Moors are an African people and Negro.

Lincoln is said to have had Negro blood, but the writer has never been able to secure any definite evidence upon the statement.

Does genuine Masonry consist of more than three degrees? What is the difference between English and French Masonry? Who is the Senior Grand Deacon of the Masons of North America?—C. C. Z. F., Upper, Idaho.

Original English Masonry had but three degrees. French Masonry is said to have been formed for political purpose and possess a rather unsavory history. It would require more space than the writer is allowed to go into details on the history of French Masonry. I do not know who is the Senior Grand Deacon of N. A. Masons.

How was the country of Sheba bounded, and how far was it from the Temple of Solomon?—J. M. Patterson.

Sheba (or Saba, as it was called by the Arabians) is not a country, but a city located in the southern part of Arabia. Anciently it was held to Negro blood. It was about 1,500 miles from Jerusalem.

What is the Mediterranean Race?—H. J. L., Lima, Ohio.

"Mediterranean" is a term applied to those people bordering upon the Mediterranean Sea. English and American scientists have tried to claim that these peoples were a branch of the white race, but it is not true. The entire southern and northern coast of the Mediterranean was settled at different times by colonists from Africa and from them came the dark skins and curling hair. Sergi of Italy is the greatest authority upon the Mediterranean Race and he proves them to be of Negro descent. These races include the Spanish, Italian and Greek peoples and the people of hither Asia.

A woman of African blood undoubtedly, if one accepts the description. However, she has ever been the lady of mystery and no commentator on Shakespeare has ever been able to find out who she was.

Be Beautiful

This column is conducted by Madame Katherine Wilson, author of The Successful Hairdresser and founder of the famous California Sun Parlor and School of Beauty Culture in Omaha, Nebraska. She will be glad to answer in this column all questions of a reasonable length. When space will not permit, she will answer correspondents who enclose postage for a return reply. Questions for her should be addressed to Mme. Katherine Wilson, 3423 Indiana Ave., The Associated Negro Press, Chicago, Ill.

Of all business women, the teacher is perhaps the most neglectful of herself. Her excuses are numerous. Her work in the first place is administering to the needs of others much to the detriment of her own self. She explains but she had no time to spare in which she can be given regular course of scalp treatments, even the her hair is more likely to be filled with oil and dandruff than that of the ordinary woman.

The particular case which I have in mind deals with a young teacher whose scalp was very tight, due to her high nerve tension and every day strain. Her hair was naturally full of dandruff and so oily that it required a shampoo every week. When I found it was impossible to get her to have me give her a course of treatments which would relieve her condition, I compromised by her promise to spend two hours in the shop on the following Saturday morning.

Armed with a new and interesting book, the teacher arrived promptly at nine o'clock to await the operation. When the hair was parted, the vibrator was applied to open the pores and lift any loosened dandruff. I applied a lotion made a mudge cure and salt, with a small toothbrush, to the scalp and saturated her entire head with the lotion. The lotion was kept hot during its application by the use of a small double boiler made of porcelain, which is a requisite to every properly equipped beauty shop.

After the expiration of one hour, I gave a vigorous shampoo, but it was not a success. I was forced to shampoo that head three times before the accumulation of dandruff and oil could be entirely removed. But after all, the result was gratifying, the oil was reduced to its natural quantity and he hair was free of dandruff.

Care of the Hands

Young Lady—The hands are your barometers of age. Many young and beautiful face may be ruined by unsightly and ill-kept hands.

No more important are any of the senses than these efficient members of your anatomy. The hands can be so cultivated in skill and dexterity that they can be indispensable. They may even render sight to the blind and hearing to the deaf.

Though hardened and awkward from overwork, the hands can be made soft, pliable and beautiful by the proper massages and exercises.

Neglected nails or nails that have been manicured with poor taste can make an otherwise attractive person ugly.

This department will welcome any questions on the care of the hands as well as those question which are asked about the perplexing conditions of the hair and face.

HOOSIT?

By Robert P. Edwards
Associated Negro Press

23.—After the betrayal and death of Toussaint L'Ouverture, insurrection in Haiti blazed anew, and coupled with yellow fever, the ranks of the French were so thinned until they were forced to capitulate to the dauntless Haitians. Various leaders arose. Dessalines who styled himself Emperor, Christophe who styled himself King, and others. Suddenly a certain Patriot was chosen leader, and he immediately organized to [illegible] Republic. This Patriot was elected President of the Republic of Haiti in 1820, and ruled admirably until 1843 leaving his country among the happiest of nations.

SUPPORT OF RACE BY NEGROES URGED AT N. L. & H. CONVENTION

(Support of Race)
Platform News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16.—Thursday's session of the tenth anniversary meeting of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, which convened Wednesday at the John Wesley A. M. E. Zion Church, was featured by addresses from men prominent in the financial circles and in the history of the organization.

Carter G. Woodson of this city, director of research and editor of the association, who presided, gave a short introductory talk on the lack of knowledge of business details among the Negroes and on the difficulty of securing information on the financial standing of the Negro business men.

Better Training Urged

S. W. Rutherford of Washington president of the National Benefit Life Insurance Company and secretary treasurer of the association, who was to have presided, was unable to appear. He sent in his place John Pinkett, also of Washington, who spoke on "Business conditions as they affect the Negro." Mr. Pinkett advocated better individual and general control of business organizations run by Negroes. He stressed the superior need of trained men to conduct research work which would facilitate some kind of business control.

In explaining the need of better organization he said: "It has not been so long since a man starting out for himself in any field of endeavor would have had a fair chance of succeeding by following the hit-or-miss system. However the day is at hand when competition is so keen that only those trained in their work will have any hope of success."

W. G. Pearson of Durham, N. C., president of the Bankers' Fire Insurance Co., and closely connected with educational work in his native State; spoke on "Why the Negro Business Man Often Fails." He attributed their frequent failure to four main causes. First inexperience; second lack of support; third, lack of capital and misdirected capital; fourth, fraudulent methods employed by some. He feels that inexperience is far the most important as it handicaps the colored business man in his struggle with the white competitors.

Support of Race Needed

While he said the last two causes are not so prevalent, many failures are due to lack of support of colored business organizations by the colored people themselves. He cites the case of one colored banker who frequently overdrew his account in the bank of which he was a director; while he had a large savings account in a white bank in another section of the town. Mr. Rutherford urges a financial magazine dealing with colored business conditions to aid the young men who are starting out in the business world.

W. Gomez of Durham, N. C., secretary and treasurer of the Bankers' Fire Insurance Co., spoke on "The Necessity of a Survey of Negro Business." He feels that such a survey would bring into contact theories and experiences in the Negro's methods of handling business. He said: "Many young colored men start out on a career with only a knowledge as to whether or not they are fitted for that particular work. If a competent survey was made these men could, form studying the results, decide with more accuracy on the career for which they are best fitted.

After a luncheon at the Whitelaw Hotel the members discussions on The Negro Press, Past and Present," by Robert S. Abbott of the Chicago Defender, L. H. King of the New Orleans Southwestern Christian Advocate and Robert L. Vann of the Pittsburgh Courier.

Wednesday's session was taken up with talks on "The African Background of the Negro," "The Negro of Today" and "The Negro Before the Civil War."

The Convention will be closed Thursday night with a final session at the church. It will be devoted to discussions on "The Negro Church and Its Effect on the Race."
